

“Black-Tie-Groove”

By: Mary Margaret Park

I love the way he moves all angles and lines in a black-tie groove

...so smooth

I love the way he stands as proud and cool as you please

...such a tease

I love the way he laughs all spice and innocent delight

...so right

I love the way he speaks in tumbling consonants with a Germanic-beat

...sultry sweet

I love the way he smiles his eyes full of secret expectation

...such a temptation
